2. A team shall lose a game by forfeit if, during the game, its actions prevent the game from being played, and/or it refuses to play after being instructed to do so by the Referee.

3. A team shall lose a game by default if, during the game, the team has fewer than 2 players on the playing court ready to play.
4. The statistical points that the winning team will receive from a game lost by forfeit or default will be based on their averages per game pre or post forfeiting or defaulting game, plus an additional 10 statistical points for the game won. The team who lost the game by forfeit or default will receive 0.00 statistical points.
5. In case of a team walkout, the result shall be declared as a game lost by forfeit. No game stats of the team will be considered. All members who were present at the game shall be suspended for the remainder of the tournament, and in the next KOTC Basketball Organizing Services' tournament. In addition, the Technical Committee (TC) may exercise its right to ban the team from entering the venue where the walkout occurred, upon written agreement of the venue.

Art. VII Protest Procedure

1. If, during a KOTC Basketball Organizing Services' official competition, a team believes its interests have been adversely affected by a decision of an official, or by any event that took place during or after a game, it must proceed in the following manner:
  - a. The assigned coach or captain shall, immediately during or after the game, inform the Technical Committee verbally that his team is protesting against the result of the game.
  - b. The assigned coach or captain shall then send to the Technical Committee his team's written protest through a hard copy or e-mail within 24-hours after the verbal intent. Any other forms will be considered invalid. Protest form to be found at: <https://kingsofthecourt.ph/downloads>
  - c. In addition, the protesting team shall deposit a PHP 500.00 as security. If the decision of the Technical Committee is in favor of the protesting fee, the deposit will be refunded.
  - d. The Technical Committee shall resolve the case, and reply through a hard copy or e-mail, no longer than five (5) days from the submission of the required documentation and protest fee.
    - i. Should the decision of the Technical Committee be in favor of the protesting team, the deposit of PHP 500.00 shall be refunded.
    - ii. Should the decision of the Technical Committee not be in favor of the protesting team, they may submit through a hard copy or e-mail a final appeal addressed to the President of KOTC Basketball Organizing Services, in which they shall additional deposit of PHP 1,000.00 as security. If the decision of the Technical Committee be in favor of the appeal, the sum of PHP 1,500.00 (protesting fee and appeal) will be refunded.
  - e. Should the decision be in favor of the protesting team, the forfeiting/penalized team may submit a final appeal, which must be in written format through hard copy or e-mail, plus a deposit of P500.00. If the Technical Committee is in favor of the appeal, the sum of P500.00 will be refunded.

2. Official protests regarding player/team eligibility will only be entertained until the 2nd week of the tournament, or not more than five (5) days after the subjected player/team played, whichever comes first. Any protests, tips, and/or relevant information succeeding this will no longer be entertained.
3. KOTC Basketball Organizing Services has the right, in its own initiative, to conduct a thorough investigation and evaluation regarding the matter, including but not limited to, ask any team to comment regarding protests or show cause, consult with higher bodies (e.g. Samahang Basketbol ng Pilipinas), and/or use precedents. Once decisions have been made, these are considered final and irreversible, except otherwise granted under Art. VII, Section 1e.
4. The Referees, in cases of buzzer-beaters, shot-clock violations, and other relevant technical issues will conduct the review, and will make the final decision. Use of Instant Replay System (IRS), if present and approved by the Referees, shall only be applied and in situations provided in the FIBA Official Basketball Rules – Summary of Changes 2014: https://www.fiba.com/downloads/Rules/2014/OBR\_Summary2014\_V6.pdf
5. Videos, films, pictures or any equipment, visual, electronic, digital, or otherwise, may be used to determine responsibility in matters of discipline or for educational (training) purposes only after the game has ended under FIBA Art. C.

Art. VIII Tiebreakers

1. Win-over-the-other rule will apply for two teams with identical records.
2. Win-over-the-other rule will apply for three or more teams with identical records, if:
  - a. One team wins all its elimination round games against the teams it is tied with
  - b. One team loses all its elimination round games against teams it is tied with.
3. Point Differential (PD) system will apply for two, three or more teams with identical records, if:
  - a. No team was able to win all its elimination round games against the teams it is tied with. It is the sum of the winning margins minus the sum of the losing margins for teams who are tied against one another. (Points for minus points against).
  - b. No team was able to face each other in the eliminations. It is the sum of the winning margins minus the sum of the losing margins for all their elimination games. (Points for minus points against).
4. In cases of game lost by forfeit or default, the winning margin is equal to the average points per game as of the end of the elimination round for the team that wins by forfeit or default. Losing margin of the losing team will be its negative equivalent.
5. If teams still have equal point differentials, win-over-the-other will be reapplied to the remaining teams. If not applicable, point differential system will be reapplied to said teams.
6. If teams are still tied after the #5 scenario, seeding will be based on the point differential system against their first common opponent or until the next common opponent where the tie is broken.

Art. IX Officials: Duties and Powers

1. The Referees shall exercise all duties and powers stated under FIBA Art. 46, and have the power to make decisions on any point not specifically covered by these rules. The Referees' power shall begin when they arrive on the playing court, and end when the game clock signal sounds for the end of the playing time, if no circumstances under Art. V, Section 2c and Art. VII occur.
  - a. The game shall be administered under FIBA's 2-Person Officiating during the elimination and playoff round
  - b. The game shall be administered under FIBA's 3-Person Officiating during the semifinals and finals
2. The Technical Committee Officer (TCO), if present, shall sit on the official's table, exercise all duties and powers stated under FIBA Art. 45.3 and Art. 47, supervise the work of the Technical Committee Associate (TCA), and to assist the Referees in the smooth functioning of the game. In addition:
  - a. Determine, before the game, the Referees who will officiate
  - b. Determine, before the game, each team's assigned coach and/or captain
  - c. Brief each team's assigned coach, and/or captain, if needed, regarding their duties and powers under FIBA Art. 6 and Art. 7
  - d. Record all penalties under Art. V, and send detailed reports to the Technical Committee regarding any issues and/or concerns needed for review.
  - e. Exercise the duties and powers of the Technical Committee Associate (TCA), if needed.
3. The Technical Committee Associate (TCA) shall sit on the official's table, and exercise all duties and powers stated under FIBA Art. 48, including but not limited to, record team names, player names, scores, and all relevant statistics via a digital tablet or laptop, if present, or a scoresheet. If a scorekeeping and/or statistical error is recognized:
  - a. During the game, the Technical Committee Associate must wait for the first dead ball before correcting on his digital tablet.
  - b. At the end of playing time and less than 24 hours after each game, the error shall be corrected, even if this correction influences the final result of the game
  - c. At the end of playing time and more than 24 hours after each game, the error may no longer be corrected. The Referee or the Technical Committee Officer, if present, must send a detailed report to the Technical Committee.
  - d. In the event of any technical malfunction and the game records are no longer retrievable, all relevant individual statistics will be based on the averages per game pre or post game, plus an additional 10 statistical points for the winning team. Final score, however, shall remain, if retrieved from any relevant source.
4. The Scoreboard Operator (SO) shall sit on the official's table, and exercise all duties and powers stated under FIBA Art. 49 and 50. In the case of any discrepancy between the Scoreboard Operator and the Technical Committee Associate (TCA) which cannot be resolved, the statistics via a digital tablet or laptop, if present, or a scoresheet shall take precedence and the scoreboard shall be corrected accordingly.

Art. X Others

1. Players, assigned coach, captain, or team representatives under the influence of liquor or drugs shall not be allowed to play or sit on the team bench.
2. Team bench shall be exclusive only for the players, assigned coach, captain, and team representative. Guests shall be by the bleachers and/or seats for the audience. Any behaviour of guests detrimental to the spirit of the sportsmanship and fair play, shall be dealt with accordingly by the officials.
3. Players, assigned coach, captain, and guests undertake to conform and adhere to the rules and regulations set forth by the respective venue/s of KOTC Basketball Organizing Services. It shall not be held liable for any structural or equipment damage which they may cause during the game. Consequently, KOTC shall not be held liable for any lost or damaged belongings of the players, assigned coach, captain, and guests.
4. KOTC Basketball Organizing Services has the full discretion in cancelling or postponing games due to a force majeure event, such as but not limited to acts of God (any natural calamity, flooding, earthquake, etc.), war, riot, or acts or threats of terrorism, and shall reschedule the event to another date and/or a suitable venue acceptable to the teams. Should a game be cancelled at any time during the game, it shall be rescheduled and continue from the exact scenario from the time the game was postponed, which includes official score, official time, team/personal fouls, and player statistics. Players not present in the postponed game will not be allowed to play in the rescheduled game.
5. Swapping and/or changing of game schedules will only be allowed once all teams involved in the swap have agreed, and if the venue permits. Once game schedules have been changed, it will be final and irreversible. Schedule adjustment request must be communicated at least a week before the scheduled game, otherwise it shall be considered invalid.
6. Should a game start later than the scheduled time, the game may be played on running time during the first two or three quarters, depending on how delayed the game is. However, the last 2 minutes of the 4th period will be played according to FIBA Art. 49.2. The Scoreboard Operator, however, may decide to shorten the warm-ups of both teams, as well as dead ball situations to ensure the game be played according to FIBA Art. 49.2.
7. Refundable amounts will be returned via bank deposit and/or cash after the tournament.
